A Voice for All Kinds of Minds

Michele Urban is a Connecticut-based family music performer. Her whimsical songs weave genres from folk, to indie rock, to jazz, all while exploring the essential themes of neurodiversity, inclusion, kindness, and friendship. Her shows are high-energy, interactive, and unforgettable. With every strum of her ukulele and every playful lyric, Michele transforms spaces into communities — where children and families sing, dance, and discover their voices together. Her latest album, Something You Don't Know, is a testament to her mission: music that uplifts, includes, and celebrates children of all ages, with all kinds of minds. Available now on Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, and more.

What They're Saying
